18th January Fish & Chips at Mapua This was a very popular event and it was nice to see some new members attending. Unfortunately we overloaded the Fish and Chippery and some people had a very long wait for their meals. Good company and some new cars to look at.

Fish & Chips & a good old natter

22nd February Mystery Run. Despite a poor turnout of cars, Marilyn Clark's cryptic car rally was really enjoyable. The word cryptic sends negative shivers down my spine, however it turned out to be quite fun....once you got your head around it, and to be truthful I was rather sorry when it finished at Toad Hall in Motueka. Great to see Mike and Ellen from Picton, Brett and Kathryn Boulter from Linkwater, and Allison from Havelock. Cunningly, there were two routes handed out which would really confuse anyone who chose to follow the car in front. I am sure everyone had an enjoyable day.

Thanks to Frank Griffith for this write up.

1st March 2015 The A.G.M. was held once again at Canvastown with a very nice lunch provided by the Trout Hotel. Attendance was up from last year with 52 attending, apologies from 31 members total only approx 30% of our membership. The weather was perfect for top down motoring, (one of the few days I can remember where the air was warm to drive through)

Only a car lover could come up with this.

I met her at the Civic, I'd been Holden up the bar all night and she walked in. I looked her Rover, I thought she seemed Familia, but that was just a Mirage. She came up to me of her own Accord. I said "Audi" and she thought I was Gallant. I lied and said I was Executive, I was just being Calais. She was quite a Starlet, wearing a nice Mini, but not that of a Hunter. Her name was Sylvia and she was a real Trooper. I'd drunk a few Coronas when I tried to Impressa. She told me not to Porsche it. I told her I wanted to Lancer. Turns out she was really an Escort so by her Standards I wasn't that Ford. I didn't want to pay, she said "you don't know what your Nissan", so I paid. I took her back to my place or HQ as I like to call it. I was an absolute Legend. Later there was a Prelude, I went to find some food from the Lada. We had a great night but I should have taken precautions because I left her with my Legacy, a little Bambina! (Anonymous)
